CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HASMUKH D. SUTHAR

Date : 31/08/2026

ORDER

- 1) RULE. Learned APP waives service of rule for the respondent-State.
- 2) The present application is filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNSS") for regular bail in connection with FIR being I-C.R. No.293 of 2007 registered with Halol Police Station, District - Panchmahal for the offences under Sections 395, 397, 120(B) and 412 of the Indian penal Code and Section 25(1)(B) of the Arms Act and Section 135 of the GP Act.
- 3) Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the offence and now nothing is required to be recovered or discovered. Investigation is over and chargesheet has been filed. He therefore submits that, considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.
- 4) Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed the present application and requested to dismiss the present application for regular bail on the ground that the applicant is involved in the present offence and played an active role. There is every possibility that, if the applicant is released on bail, he will indulge in similar offences and try to tamper with the evidence. Therefore, present application does not deserve consideration.

- 5) While granting bail, the Court has to consider the involvement of the accused in the alleged offence, the jurisdiction to grant bail has to be exercised on the basis of the well settled principles having regard to the facts and circumstances of each case and the following factors are to be taken into consideration while considering an application for bail: (i) the nature of accusation and the severity of the punishment and the nature of the materials relied upon by the prosecution; (ii) reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witnesses and threat to the complainant or the witnesses; (iii) reasonable possibility of securing the presence of the accused at the time of trial or the likelihood of his abscondence; (iv) character behaviour and standing of the accused and the circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; (v) larger interest of the public or the State and similar other considerations are required to be considered.
- 6) I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the investigation papers. Following aspects have been considered:
 - (1) There are seven offences have been registered against the applicant, out of which in three offences he has been acquitted, in three offences he is on bail and in one offence he is in judicial custody. So far as the impugned offence is concerned his custody was taken by way of transfer warrant and produced before the Court of Metropolitan Magistrate, Court No.11, Ahmedabad, dated 08.02.2008. Upon production the accused persons were handed over the custody to the concerned Police Inspector, LCB Godhra. The applicant was arrested in connection of impugned offence and on 08.02.2008 transferred to the Maharashtra Jail in connection of another offence. But the facts remains that in the impugned offence the custody of the applicant remains continuous since February 2008 and till date after the committal of the case the charge is yet to be framed after efflux of 18 years. Considering the delay in trial without entering into merit, present application deserves consideration with stringent conditions.;

- (2) Applicant is behind the bars since 08.08.2008;
 - (3) Investigation is over and charge-sheet is filed;
 - (4) There is nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant;
 - (5) Obviously conclusion of trial will take some time.
- 7) This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra vs. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimhulu And Ors vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in (1978)1 SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that "bail is a rule and jail is exception" as well as the concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration.
- 8) In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with FIR being I-C.R. No.293 of 2007 registered with Halol Police Station, District - Panchmahal on executing a personal bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-five Thousand only) with ONE LOCAL SURETY of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he;

- (a) shall not take undue advantage of liberty or misuse liberty;
- (b) shall not act in a manner injurious to the interest of the prosecution & shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and shall not to play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;
- (c) shall surrender passport, if any, to the Trial Court within a week;
- (d) shall not leave the territory of India without prior permission of the Trial Court concerned;
- (e) shall mark presence before the concerned Police Station once in every month for a period of six months between 11.00 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.;
- (f) shall furnish the copy of Aadhar card, email ID / permanent and present address of his residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change his residence, contact number / SIM Card without prior permission of Trial Court;
- (g) shall not indulge in any illegal activity, failing which the learned trial Court shall issue warrant and cancel the bail of the applicant.

- 9) The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter.

- 10) Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.
- 11) At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.
- 12) Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. Direct service is permitted.
